

What does it mean to be Canadian?

Name 4 things, that in your opinion, define us as Canadian. Provide a two to four sentence example or explanation for each thing. Include a fact about Canada that supports each of these points.

- Use these four points to make a poster, either with the computer or by hand, that displays each idea with its supporting evidence.
- Display them in such a way that is attractive and allows them to be easily read.
- Include at least two Canadian symbols in your poster as well.
- Your poster need only be the size of this page

Here is what one of your entries might look like:

Tim Hortons

Canadians are some of the world's biggest coffee drinkers, and love hockey, so what could be more Canadian than a coffee shop started by a Canadian NHL player? The coffee chain is so popular in Canada that the term "double double" is actually in the Canadian Oxford Dictionary. Tim Horton's controls over 75% of Canada's coffee and baked goods market, and is our nation's largest fast-food chain, with over 3,800 locations across the country. That is a lot of Timbits!

Due: _____
